

Probability Based Results

In today's complex, fast-paced, intensely competitive, profit-squeezed, regulation-laden business arena, you can't afford to rely on a crapshoot to make decisions or select the right management team. You need the right talent, the right decision, the right attitude, right now, first time, every time.

Improve your odds of business success and competitive advantage in today's high stakes global environment.

Choose Certified Management Consultants (CMC®) for top-tier, seasoned, peer-reviewed, management expertise across diverse business and engineering disciplines.

The CMC designation is awarded to only the best and brightest consultants who demonstrate their ability to consistently deliver quality and results. The CMC designation takes the guesswork out of selecting and hiring seasoned staff and consultants, especially those with specialty know-how, insights, and integrity that you need and demand.

Skill Based Results

Entrust your time-sensitive, integral business solutions, operational transformations, and technology upgrades to our worldwide network of over 10,000 multi-talented CMCs practicing in over 40 countries.

Each CMC's experience, client reviews, written and oral exams, and peer panel interviews are meticulously scrutinized by a peer Certification Review Board to verify that each candidate meets our highest business, professional, and ethical standards.

CMCs must uphold strict guidelines for continuing education and community involvement to ensure they maintain their ethical perspective, update skills and stay current. Each CMC's status is reviewed every three years to assure quality.
